

THE COUNCIL IN SESSION.

Regular Monthly Meeting Held for the Transaction of Accumulated Routine.

The Water Committee Not Ready to Report and Granted an Extension of Time.

Turn Out Will be Allowed the Motor Line Near the School on Warren Street.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last evening. Mayor Fuller presided. Present: Loeb, Thieme, Anderson, Washburne, Featherly, Richards, Smalley, Spencer, Dunn, Allen, Harrison, and Klein.

The journal of the last regular meeting was read and approved without any changes.

The monthly report of officers were read. The report of the street commissioner showed expenditure for the month of September, $2,111.36.

Junius G. Sanders, police magistrate, reported $481.30 collected in fines. The report of the city marshal showed 173 arrests in September.

Loeb, chairman of the water committee, said he would be ready to report next Friday at a special meeting. He also asked that the city engineer be instructed to go to camp gulch and make another report, and be engaged as so instructed. He also informed the council that a number of mains and hydrants were exposed and the city clerk was authorized to instruct the water companies to cover them.

The report of the auditing committee was read and adopted as follows:

IN HYMEN'S HAPPY BONDS.

Two Pleasant Weddings Celebrated on the East Side Last Night.

Mr. George Major and Miss Grace Burnham were united in marriage last night at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. James H. Harris, 530 Rodney street; Rev. R. P. Eubanks officiating. Only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties were present. Mr. Major is a gentleman respected by all who know him and is particularly popular with the typists of this city, being a proficient member of that craft, having filled the position of foreman of the Independent job room for a long time to the entire satisfaction of his employers. Recently he purchased an interest in the Missoula Gazette, and is now living in the Garden City. Miss Burnham is a highly accomplished young lady, who has resided in this city for the past year, and has made many friends.

The evening was very pleasantly spent, Mr. and Mrs. Harris doing their utmost to entertain those present.

The presents were handsome and costly, the following being a partial list:

Dresden china water set with hammer, brass salve; Mr. and Mrs. L. F. LaCroix.

Set of cut glass salts, W. Alexander.

Glance and silk sachet handkerchief case, Miss C. L. Turnley.

Gold lined silver sugar spoon in case, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hoss.

Gold and enameled flower breastpin, Mr. A. J. Aikens, of Milwaukee.

Silver sugar bowl, Alex Wright.

Perfumes and toilet set, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mulloy.

Solid silver butter dish, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mollinelli.

Ebony and bronze clock, David Marks.

Oxidized silver and gold cake stand, B. F. Nesmith.

Oxidized silver gold lined cream pitcher, sugar bowl and tongs, Miss Mabel Burnham.

Brass parlor lamp with decorated china shade, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Harris.

Large basket of flowers, Miss Emma Bell.

Irish point lace collar, Miss DeVoe.

Two $50 checks, from a near friend, were enclosed in an envelope.

The happy couple will leave for their home in Missoula to-morrow afternoon.

FEETHAM-BENNETT.

Last evening at the residence of the bride on Davis street, Mr. F. W. Feetham of this city, was married to Miss Kate S. Bennett, Rev. Dr. Raleigh, of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church officiating.

There were present quite a number of friends, and a delightful repast was spread.

A number of handsome and valuable presents were received by the happy couple.

PERSONAL.

James Houston of Melrose is in the city.

Jere Sullivan of Fort Benton, is in the city.

Mrs. L. J. LaCroix is lying very ill at the Merchants.

Tom Kessler is down with an attack of pneumonia.

E. L. Harwood of Three Forks is at the Merchants.

Judge Wm. J. Galbraith came up from Deer Lodge yesterday.

Misses Agnes and A. F. Mathwig of Billings are guests of the Merchants.

Ben Tibbey, superintendent of the Parrot Mining company of Butte is in the city.

John Maguire left for San Francisco last evening to look after his theatrical business.

Mrs. T. H. Kleinschmidt, who has been in the east for the past two months, has returned.

A. J. Burns, of Marysville, republican county commissioner-elect, is at the Cosmopolitan.

B. T. Nesmith of Missoula came to Helena yesterday to attend the Major-Burnham nuptials.

Jos. A. Browne of Glendale, who was on the state democratic ticket for secretary of state, is in town.

Lew L. Callaway, of Virginia City, A. W. Ford, of Great Falls, and Robert Jackson, of Tacoma, are at the Cosmopolitan.

H. H. Hardyn, Omaha, Neb.; Jos. R. Whalen, Portland, and J. B. Chapin and wife of Chicago are at the Merchants.

Mrs. A. Harrington, of Anaconda, J. Doonan, of Missoula, and J. H. Hilderbrand, of Wickes, are registered at the Grand Central.

Robert Haislop, of Butte, better known as "Bob Hootin", arrived in town yesterday and is shaking hands with many old-time friends.

Miss Annie Alderson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Russell of Rodney street, for a couple of weeks, left for her home at Bozeman yesterday evening accompanied by Miss Moran.

Found to Be Insane.

Mrs. Emma Lebert was adjudged insane yesterday and will be taken to the asylum at Warm Springs. Mrs. Lebert has been violently insane for some time and her husband filed complaint against her in the probate court. She could not be induced to go to the court house, so Judge Hovey and the jury consisting of Dr. J. M. Read, John Steinmetz and E. M. Hoyt went to the house and adjudged the case. She will be taken to the asylum to-day.

Ladies should call at Fred Gerner's and get a pair of slippers, as he is selling them at a very low figure.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Work on the Ming street sewer commenced yesterday.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to George Major and Miss Grace Burnham, F. W. Feetham and Catherine N. Bennett.

The marriage engagement of Charles Lindsear, an employe of the street railway company and Miss Sadie M. Acord, of Iowa, is announced.

A fire was noticed in the valley about a mile below Kessler's brewery, last night. It consisted of a pile of brush which was purposely set afire. People in town who noticed this became alarmed. It was reported at one time that a Northern Pacific passenger train was on fire.

Will Norris, of the Norris Bros', confectionary store, was in a runaway accident yesterday and was considerably bruised. His horse, attached to the two-wheel cart, ran down Jackson street to Grand, then turned into Main and ran into a lumber wagon and tipped over. The horse continued his run until there was very little left of the cart.

Amusements.

"Chicks" pleased another delighted audience at the Opera house last night. The play amounts to nothing, but the worth of the actors atones for the defects of the piece. There is enough laughter in the second act to compensate one for the dullness of the first and third.

"The City Directory," Friday night, is a farcical comedy that has been highly praised by the press. The company numbers among its members such favorites as Charlie Reed, W. F. Mack, Ignacio Martinetti, and May Yobe. Saturday matinee and performance Saturday night.
